

HUMAN RIGHTS PROTECTION POLICY

ALEX BEACH hotel in the context of the protection of human rights and children applies the following:

- Faithfully follows and conform to the national employment law
- Establishes a healthy and safe work environment for equal and fair treatment of employees and clients
- Condemns all forms of discrimination and exploitation of workers and clients based on race, ethnicity, gender, religious beliefs, age, disability (of natural and mental origin)
- Does not tolerate sexual and verbal harassment and abuse of employees and clients
- Provides for the imposition of disciplinary sanctions, including dismissal in the event of non-compliance with human rights protection policy
- Filling in an anonymous complaint form in the event of unjust and unfair treatment of a third party employee within the company and taking measures by management to restore its proper functioning
- Detailed information on the rights and obligations of our hotel's staff are included in the employee handbook, which is available separately to each employee.

The proper operation of the ALEX BEACH hotel is based, inter alia, on the values of dignity and respect for the personality of the human factor and therefore does not accept any action to disturb the legal order within its environment.
